

Release Notes

| Version                                                                                                              | Comment                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Supported Grippers                                                                   | Interface   |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------|
| 1.0.1Compatibility:RobotWare: 7.8.1FlexPendant: 1.10.0178OS: 1.0.4Wizard 1.5.0 | Changelog:Changed validators of text input fields for Min- and Max Position to comply with the gripper's policy for those values.Required Options:EtherNet/IP scanner option must be installed on the robot to be able to use the grippers.Known issues:Backup and Restore is not working correctly. The App is missing after this operation. -> Workaround:Reinstall App. | EGU: all types with firmware version 5.1EGK: all types with firmware version 5.1 | EtherNet/IP |
| 1.0.0Compatibility:RobotWare: 7.8.1FlexPendant: 1.10.0178OS: 1.0.4Wizard 1.5.0 | Initial ReleaseRequired Options:EtherNet/IP scanner option must be installed on the robot to be able to use the grippers.Known issues:Backup and Restore is not working correctly. The App is missing after this operation. -> Workaround:Reinstall App.                                                                                                                              | EGU: all types with firmware version 5.1EGK: all types with firmware version 5.1 | EtherNet/IP |